

The Purpose-Driven Death Mission Conference

Persecution and Suffering of the Saints
in the Harvest of the Nations

October 18-19, 2008

High Pointe Baptist Church • Austin, Texas

To Every Tribe Ministries is pleased to announce that Dr. John Piper will be the featured speaker along with our own David Sitton, founder of TETM, Brett Harris, co-founder with brother Alex of The Rebelution and author of the new best selling book Do Hard Things. Rod Conner (Vice-President of TETM) and Gregg Harris (pioneer leader in the Christian Home Schooling Movement and founding pastor of Household of Faith Community Church in Gresham, OR) will also be with us.

The Purpose Driven Death Mission Conference aims:

1. To make much of Christ for the Romans 15:20 regions of the world
2. To challenge believers to pursue the privilege of radical mission to unreached peoples
3. To pray for the Lord of the harvest to send out harvesters

Plan to join us for this national conference and please pray for TETM as we continue to take our strategic place in taking the gospel to the unreached. May the Lord move quickly to save sheep and establish churches in the hard-to-get-to, least reached places!

Preregistration for the conference is only $29! Register at www.toeverytribe.com Missionary suffering, even martyrdom itself, is part of the strategy that God intentionally employs to advance the gospel. The Lord sometimes uses the death of his disciples for the swifter extension of the Kingdom of God into hostile regions. Risking our lives for the gospel is where we experience the joy of knowing Christ in the fellowship of his sufferings. A death for the gospel is a Purpose-Driven Death.
