

Learn

Prospective students are encouraged to spend time becoming acquainted with the ministry before applying. Here are some steps that can be taken to learn about To Every Tribe and the CPCP.

- ✓ Read
 - Web Page: Read about To Every Tribe and the CPCP on our website. The following pages will be especially helpful and informative:
 - To Every Tribe Page: Vision and Mission, Statement of Faith, FAQs
 - CPCP Page: Our Mission, Our Distinctives, Our History, Curriculum, Tuition and Fees, CPCP Campus, CPCP FAQs
 - Student Handbook
 - God's Power is Demonstrated Among the Chambri Tribe of PNG by David Sitton
- ✓ Listen:
 - Messages by To Every Tribe president, David Sitton, and from To Every Tribe's 2008 mission conference, The Purpose-Driven Death.

Contact

- ✓ Individuals and families interested in attending the CPCP can call Margie Sanford, To Every Tribe's Director of Communications, at 956-233-4353. Margie is available to answer questions and help direct prospective students through the application process.

Apply

- ✓ Submit the CPCP Application Form and application fee.
- ✓ Distribute Pastoral and General Reference Forms to references provided on application.

Interview

A personal interview is required for all prospective students. There are two ways to do this:

- ✓ Make a personal visit to the CPCP and the To Every Tribe headquarters in Los Fresnos, TX
- ✓ Receive a personal visit from a To Every Tribe representative.

Note: In some instances where a personal interview is not possible, a telephone interview will be allowed as a substitute.

Acceptance

Upon acceptance to the CPCP, prospective students should:

- ✓ Pay a nonrefundable $150 confirmation deposit that will be applied to the student's tuition upon arrival at the CPCP.
- ✓ Begin to make arrangements for housing in Los Fresnos.
- ✓ Discuss tuition payment plan with To Every Tribe Office Manager, Tommi Sitton.
